The aim of this CNL Internship Project is to improve the admission and discharge assessments of a home care agency in order to boost agency's star ratings. The project is being carried out within a home care agency in Northern California. The multidisciplinary team provides services in the patients' place of residence, an ever-changing setting. The project follows a train-the trainer approach beginning with self-paced learning of the OASIS format. The trainee will conduct an admission, also known as start of care (SOC), assessment followed by trainer critique and advisement.

Where To Download Oasis

Establishing a rapport early will aid the assessment process.

Face-to-face assessment follows a review of systems that includes both evaluate at this time.

Given the many moving parts related to the star rating it will likely be at least a year before they reflect this projects' efforts. As an application in healthcare reform the OASIS is still relatively new.

Research on its overall impact on the
